

Crush Live Call-ins #585 10-12-26

Hand 1: (Non Hand Call) VPIP continuously straddling to $100.. Hero raises all-in with QQ for $700 and STRD calls with "1 chip" but dealer scoops in his cards (mucks them) before the board gets put out. What do you do?

SETUP: $1-$3 Colorado

PRE: HUGE VIP straddles to +1 $100, BTN ($700) calls.. Hero ($700) SB QQ shove, +1 calls (STRD).. BTN folds. STRD hand gets mucked.

Hand 2: (On TCH Live Stream)

SETUP: TCH Social Austin. $2-5+$10+20, match the stack. $5.6k eff $400 Nit game is on. BB and STRD are last two left to not win hand in this round of Nit Game.

PRE: MP limps, Hero Qs Qh limps $20, BB limps, STRD $325, folds back to Hero, Hero limp re raises to $1000, STRD calls. $2050

FLOP: Td Tc 9c Hero $625.. STRD calls. $3300

TURN: Ah Hero checks, STRD checks behind.

RIVER: 9s Hero checks, STRD jams $4000.. Hero folds.. STRD has 77 (on stream)

Hand 3: (Non hand call on Multiway Running it twice when all players don't agree)

SETUP: Homegame in TN.

PRE: EP raises, Hero (covers) flats TT on BTN and SB calls.. 3 ways

FLOP: Tc 8c 6d -- EP bets, Hero calls, SB calls.

TURN: 4s -- SB bets, PFR raises.. Hero 3 bets all-in... SB calls, PFR calls.

SB has AT, EP has Qc 7c. Hero says he only wants to run it once. Even though Hero covers, the other two shorter stack opponents propose to each other that they will run the pot twice if Hero loses run 1. This is the exact same thing as if Hero was the short stack and two larger stack players wanted to run "everything" twice (the Main + side) if Hero loses run #1. If Hero were to win run #1 he would win the whole main pot. Bart discusses how this changes the equity of the hand for one of the non-Hero's stacks.

Hand 4:

SETUP: Parx 2/5 $1k eff..

PRE: Hero in BTN, Ac 2c Hero open $20, BB calls. $40

FLOP: 5c 5h 2h BB x, Hero $15, BB calls. $70

TURN: Kc BB x, Hero bets $40, BB raises $135, Hero calls. $340

RIVER: 4c BB bets $200.. Hero calls. BB has K5ss, Hero loses.
